

The Alderney Literary Trust

INSPIRING A LOVE OF WORDS

PRESS RELEASE

Investment services company Ravenscroft have signed a one-year Sponsorship Agreement with the Alderney Literary Trust, which will enable the Trust to increase its impact on the Alderney community.

“In these difficult funding times, the Ravenscroft sponsorship has come as a blessing” said Isabel Picornell, founder and trustee of Alderney Literary Trust. “Their support will help the Trust to support more of our literary and educational events and undertake more charitable initiatives to increase its impact in the wider Alderney community. It’s fantastic that a company which is so new to the island is already making a commitment to the community.”

Ravenscroft recently opened an office at 38, High Street to offer its range of investments to Alderney, where it already has a number of clients. ‘Supporting the communities within which we operate is central to the Ravenscroft ethos. We have offices in Guernsey, Jersey, the Isle of Man and the UK and are proud of the charities, schools, sports, voluntary organisations and community events which we sponsor. By doing so, it allows us to see clients and meet new ones and is our way of thanking the communities for the support they have given us,’ said group managing director Mark Bousfield. ‘The Alderney Literary Trust has some exciting plans for the coming year, and we look forward to being involved.’

For more information, contact Isabel Picornell 01481 824688
info@alderneyliterarytrust.com